Anthony Taylor, 1946-1968

Willie Tucker, 1948-1968

For Anthony and "Tuck"

We mourn the loss of our beloved flowers
When the bustling winds of winter
Rob them of their existence;
Yet, we rejoice in the thought that this,
Perhaps, frees them from life's unforeseen sorrows.

When flowers are flecked
By the blight of invaders,
They seem to free themselves
For the beauty they so love—
Two such flowers grew among us; liberated themselves
For the freedom they so loved.
